

Mineral Locality Symposium

Mineral Photography

March 21, 2009

Followed by a field trip on Sunday, March 22, 2009

*Suggested Donations: $10.00, Saturday Lectures & Field Trip;
$5.00, Sunday Field Trip to Ed Nazelrod's Apache Canyon turquoise claims*

Sponsored By

Friends of Mineralogy (Southern California Chapter),
BLM Desert Discovery Center, Mojave River Valley Museum

Desert Discovery Center
831 Barstow Road
Barstow, CA 92311
Phone: 1(760) 252-6060

Take Interstate 15 to Barstow and get off at Barstow Road and go north. The Desert Discovery Center is on the right hand side of the road.

Saturday Symposium and Field Trip & Sunday Field Trip

- | | |
|----------|--|
| 9:00 AM | Registration for Symposium and Field Trips
Coffee and snacks available |
| 9:30 | Welcome — Robert Hilburn, President, Mojave River Valley Museum Association and Bob Reynolds, President, SCFM |
| 9:35 | Local History: Advances in Mineral Microphotography — Bob Reynolds |
| 9:50 | Microscope Projections for Classrooms — Robert Hilburn |
| 10:00 | Techniques in Macro and Micro Mineral Photography — Paul H. Adams |
| 11:00 | Break |
| 11:15 | Choices and Results: Different Methods of Obtaining Images of Mineral Specimens — Fred & Linda Elsnau |
| 12:00 PM | Lunch and SCFM Meeting |
| 1:30 | Light and Color in Nature — David Lynch |
| 2:30 | Silent Mineral Auction, Please bring mineral specimens for auction. |
| 3:00 | Field Trip Information and Registration — Please register so we don't leave you behind.
Saturday Trip: Fossil Trackways at Owl Canyon
Sunday Trip: Ed Nazelrod's Apache Canyon turquoise claims in San Bernardino County. Please bring an additional $5 donation per person for the miners who provide the tour. Rough and cut samples will be available. |